During your master's program, your professional and personal development is as essential to your learning as your core courses and academic work. Throughout your master's program, we help you build your career experience through classroom training and extracurricular work. Internships throughout the program are an additional way to gain months of work experience before you graduate, and will provide you with an opportunity to choose a fulfilling career.

CORE CAREER TRAINING

Our Career Development Center team is specifically dedicated to provide coaching and guidance, which will help you shape and refine your own brand as a professional that will impress employers. We can help you launch a career regionally, nationally or internationally, depending on your passion and willingness to work hard to develop networks of contacts to pursue.

CORE CAREER TRAINING THROUGHOUT THE PROGRAM CONSISTS OF:

- Career assessment, targeted goal setting, and self-directed search strategies
- One-on-one career coaching
- Internships and job search assistance
- Professional development in areas of résumé writing, interview skills, negotiation, and networking

THROUGHOUT YOUR PROGRAM WE HOST:

- CareerTalks
- Workshops
- Company information sessions
- Company site visits
- Networking events
- Career fairs

FIELDWORK IN MANAGEMENT

The Fieldwork in Management, a required MBA internship course, is a partnership between the student, the institution, and the employer. The experiences gained from your fieldwork help you to build your résumé with MBA-level work experience and to apply knowledge gained from your MBA course work.

EXECUTIVE FELLOWS PROGRAM

For ambitious students who aim high and work hard to achieve their goals, the Executive Fellows Program puts you in contact with top business professionals who could impact your professional life in ways you never imagined possible. They visit campus quarterly to host seminars on networking and many other themes. Their visits include one-on-one coaching sessions with students and classroom presentations. Executive Fellows are highly connected in the business world and eager to help students who have a clear career trajectory.

Contact us personally, meet us on campus for a personal tour, or attend an event.
